

M&M Bonding Moments

- Co-author an in-depth feature article for the Memo to Members (MtM) newsletter.
- Create a short, creative article for MtM that teaches a grammar and/or mechanics point.
- Profile a Central Florida technical writing employer in a short article for MtM and the FTC newsletter/website.
- Oversee production of an FTC newsletter or perform equivalent activity for the FTC website.
- Develop a flyer and press release to promote the joint STC/FTC meeting in February.
- Participate in the chapter and FTC's educational outreach initiative at Ocoee H.S.
- Arrange a job-shadowing visit for the mentee to learn more about the workplace.
- Revise the FTC constitution bylaws to include new events and practices.
- Write a software review for Memo to Members and FTC newsletter/website.
- Sponsor a virtual activity for the OCF Chapter and FTC, educational or social in nature.
- Write a short review of one or more websites of interest for MtM or the FTC newsletter/website.
- Review a technical book or guide for MtM.

- Update the mentee's résumé to present his/her abilities and experience to future employers.
- Work together to create a portfolio for the mentee to use when job-hunting.
- Work together to polish the mentee's job interviewing skills, including "mock" interviews.
- Post M&M projects and activities on our Facebook page to share it with everyone in the mentoring program!
- Use the social media to engage in real-time "chats" to get to know each other better and share ideas.
- Visit (together) a few local businesses seeking contributions to Operation Rising Stars, in support of the chapter's educational outreach initiatives.
- Volunteer together for any STC-Orlando or FTC task/activity, earning an Active Member point in the process.
- Join an STC SIG in an area of mutual interest and participate in a SIG-related project together.